Time-Bound Announcements

Kevin Segall: This weekend in Pasadena, the 55th California International Antiquarian Book Fair (<https://www.abaa.org/cabookfair>)

Moments of Science

Lee Grixit

- The sequester time for data gathered using the James Webb Space Telescope will be shortened, and some scientists are protesting that.
- AI will be used to synthesize every available version of Gilgamesh.

Maners

- Swedish archaeologists retrieved a felted wool hat from an anaerobic bog; the hat is about 600 years old.
- Norwegian archaeologists obtained a 1,200-year-old arrow complete with original fletching from an ice patch.
- Geneticists working on the Pygmy genome discovered that it emerged in Central Africa about 250,000 years ago. That makes it one of the oldest and most stable genomes.

Regular Announcements

Poliner

- Feb. 25 is the next work session at Karl Lembke's storage unit.
- The next Greater Angeleno Gourmet Society (GAGS) gathering will also occur that night, at Super Wok in Tarzana.

Jackson received some Brach's Milk Chocolate Stars in the mail.

Johnson indicated she won't be able to run the meeting next week because of Gallifrey One. Fox will do so.

Poliner will also be at Gallifrey One. Fox or another member will take on registrar duties.

Scribbles will be on hand that week, to menace LASFSans.

Reviews

Johnson recommends The Last of Us on HBO.

Grixit described The Ark, which is available on Hulu, Peacock, and YouTube TV.

Jackson shared his impressions on Not Dead Yet, available on ABC, Hulu, and elsewhere.

Levin also thought Everything Everywhere All at Once was fantastic and has been enjoying the original British Ghosts.

Jackson enjoyed the American version more.

Ben Levin said Everything Everywhere All at Once is now one of his favorite movies.

Miscellaneous

Maners

- He slipped and fell in his lecture hall, lightly spraining both knees.
- AMC Theaters will base ticket prices on seat location by the end of the year.

Chris Marble reported that George Mulligan sent greetings, will not attend Gallifrey One, has lost more than 50 pounds, and is getting stronger.

Johnson mentioned the aftermeeting.

Call to Adjourn

Poliner so moved. That was seconded. The ayes had it.

Board Meeting

Feb. 12, 2023

Michelle Pincus, chairing

Susan Fox, Secretary

Call to Order

11:02 a.m.

Present

Chairman Michelle Pincus, Vice Chairman Nick Smith, Secretary Susan Fox, Eylat Poliner, Gavin Claypool, Elayne Pelz, Christian B. McGuire, Rob "Gizmo" Powell, Cathy Johnson, Dean Johnson, and Heide Nichols. Non-board members: Webmistress Kristine Cherry

Minutes

Approved

Treasurer's Report (Elayne Pelz)

$31,543.02 in the active treasury

30-Second Reports

Chairman (Michelle Pincus): No report
Vice Chairman (Nick Smith): No report
Secretary (Susan Fox): No report
Comptroller (Gavin Claypool): Fidelity account balance as Feb. 10, 2023: $801,540.33. A year-end investment report from Fidelity should be available next week for taxes.

Library (Gavin Claypool): He has received boxes from the estates of Karl Lembke, Louis Gray, and Eric Hoffman. Boxes of books are out of Loscon storage.

Quartermaster (Heide Nichols): No report
Archives (Cathy Johnson): She will check the archives for digitized publications and books for the library in late April or May.

Physical Plant/Storage (Rob Powell and Dean Johnson): No report

AV Equipment (Dean Johnson): The equipment remains in storage.

Events (Eylat Poliner): No events. Defers to Loscon chairs.

Loscon 48 (Nick Smith): Smith has handed a check for $11,019.61 to Elayne Pelz. Better than we expected, we got a good number of memberships vs. expenses. Loscon 48 is now closed.

Loscon 49 (Michelle Pincus): Loscon 49 has $5,695.91.

Marketing and Recruitment (Michelle Pincus): LASFS has tables at the paperback show March 19 and the OrcCon gaming con next to Gallifrey One. The Loscon and LASFS library tables need help.

Publications (Christian B. McGuire): De Profundis is back in publication by "Scribbles." Fanac, a reputable entity, wants to publish our fanzines. Karl Lembke digitized all our fanzines, but he had his laptop wiped clean upon his death. He thought the De Prof work was off the computer, and it should be in the hands of the archivist at the time, who was Debra Levin. In the meantime, Heath Row and Fanac guy will communicate directly for new issues of De Prof.

Miscellaneous (Eylat Poliner): Karl Lembke's storage unit work day on Feb. 25, invites people to come take stuff. Greater Angeleno Gourmet Society (GAGS) dinner at Super Wok at 7 p.m.

Significant Others

President (Cathy Johnson) We are meeting! New members, guests, Tim Powers spoke through a speaker phone but still managed to make a good presentation. David Brin could not make it due to medical issues (he is OK now) and has rescheduled for April 6. Kudos to Eylat Poliner for getting guest speakers. Aftermeeting social time is still lively.

We might need to get a Loscon 50 chair, which will be a club presentation. Deadline is Feb. 25.

Heide Nichols wants to know, are you going to walk up to them and say you can not tell us who you have in mind for Guests of Honor or do anything that will forward your ability to get this bid?

Christian B. McGuire: If they are competent and have all the requirements, they can bid without opposition.

Webmistress (Kristine Cherry): In a holding pattern until after Gallifrey One. Asking Dean Johnson about the database they are trying to retrieve. Barry Gold is paying for the storage and wants to be mindful. Dean Johnson does not have an update for the full list to switch over.

A full membership database throughout the club history is needed for meetings and for moderating social media. Perhaps that should not be made publicly available, for privacy reasons. It is on Google Docs and only Michelle Pincus and Elayne Pelz have access at this time.

Rob Powell: Does member information fall under the digital archive? Probably does. Should this be made available to procedural officers like the president?

Cherry: We are using Google Docs and give access to people who need to use it.

Powell: Does this fall under Webmaster vs. Archivist? Cherry thinks it does.

McGuire: Archives are archives, whatever the form.

Cathy Johnson makes that call, but the gatekeeper of that digital access is the Webmistress who controls the access, so that makes sense. Johnson delegates the job to Cherry, which addresses Powell's question.

Cherry: Where are we going with a new clubhouse? It's a money thing.

Elayne Pelz: The trouble is the lack of properties in our price range, where we want to buy one. Pelz continues to monitor the three Web sites and is still trying to get a broker. No brokers have accepted. We might as well stay on Zoom, grow our money, and wait for the market to settle. We have more weekly attendees now on Zoom than we had in person in 2020. All we are missing is auction income. We need a place with meeting space, room for the library, and storage for club materials.

Cherry asks for someone to write up a set of requirements for a club house, to address that inevitable question.

Agenda Items

April Board Meeting: The second Sunday is Easter. New date: April 23. The May Board Meeting is canceled because of Mother's Day.

Open Forum

Nick Smith: New members appear to be from the Orange County and San Diego areas. How can we leverage marketing to those areas?

Susan Fox: Expand announcements to include Orange County and San Diego events.

Cathy Johnson: We market to Long Beach fandom groups.

Heide Nichols: Still a member of the OC group, which meets on Wednesdays. Heide and an author friend go to their meetings in person and would be willing to bring LASFS club materials to them.

Gavin Claypool: The next Loscon meeting is scheduled for April 29 at 1 p.m. It is not the same weekend as the scheduled board meeting April 23.

Please contact the con, store, or venue (or visit its Web site) to confirm any events and logistics before traveling to attend. Events and schedules are subject to change. Additions and updates welcome.

If you'd like to submit cons, events, or news items of interest to LASFS members for inclusion in De Prof, please do so by contacting the editor (see Colophon above).

LASFS APaE

The LASFS offers two amateur press associations (apae). APA-L is mailed weekly, and LASFAPA is monthly.

APA-L #3006-3009 contain an assessment of 2022's apac, poetry, personal news, discussion of current events and scientific developments, a list of notable Black scientists and academics, con and travel reports, book and movie reviews, a sample Deed of Gift form from the University of California Riverside Library, profiles of patron saints, fanart, comic strips, distribution comments—and a brand new apan, Matthew Mitchell. Covers feature the artwork of Charles Lee Jackson II, C.D. Carson, Al Sirois, and Taral Wayne.

LASFAPA #554-555 feature participants' personal news; book, comic book, and television reviews; and mailing comments.

To learn more about APA-L, contact Heath Row at kalel@well.com or per the Colophon above. To inquire about LASFAPA, contact Marty Cantor at martyhoohah@sbcglobal.net.

Clubzine Exchange

In addition to sending De Prof to the LASFS membership, we also send copies to more than 30 sf clubs around the world. Some of them reciprocate with their own publications, which I can forward to LASFSians upon request. Just ask for what you'd like to receive by name. Since the last issue, we've received:

Fission #2 Volume 2, edited by Gene Rowe and Eugen Bacon, is a 216-page anthology collecting 16 short stories from the British Science Fiction Association. The editors provide a Foreword, and the volume ends with brief profiles of the authors featured. The best story title, story unread, is a toss-up between Mark

Thomas's "Mittens Aurelius: Meowditations" and Ray Daley's "I Hide Behind Cardboard Cliffs and Polystyrene Rocks." <https://www.bsfa.co.uk>

Ionisphere (February 2023), edited by John Thiel, is the clubzine of the National Fantasy Fan Federation's Fan-Pro Coordinating Bureau. "The ... [b]ureau, established in the 1980s ... is dedicated to establishing better relations between science fantasy writers, artists and editors and the readers of science fantasy who call themselves fans." This issue includes interviews with Graham J. Darling (by yours truly!); John Grayshaw, administrator of the Facebook group Science Fiction Book Club; author and poet Michael Butterworth; editorial commentary; and poetry. <http://www.n3f.org>

OASFiS Event Horizon #420 (February 2023) is the Orlando Area Science Fiction Society's monthly newsletter. It includes a calendar of local cons and events, as well as news of upcoming society activities. January minutes include the best novels of 2022 and relevant awards. A book and movie review round out the edition. <https://oasfis.org>

Starship Express Vol. 36 #2 is the newsletter of the Science Fiction Association of Bergen County in New Jersey. This issue includes a preview of the February meeting featuring author Joseph R. Lallo, member news, a calendar of upcoming events, details about the various subgroups and activities of the club (such as book, movie, and TV discussion groups, and writers groups), upcoming local readings and cons, and a recap of the previous month's wide range of activities. This is one of the most active and wide ranging clubs I've encountered. <https://tinyurl.com/sfabc-club>

The N3F's Tightbeam #341 (February 2023) offers anime, fanzine, movie, and television reviews, as well as sercon and a recipe inspired by literature. <http://www.n3f.org>

Twinned Tomatoes Battlecat Artificers (AKA TTBA), from the Cambridge University Science Fiction Society in England. "It is mostly comprised of collaborative 'chainwriting' but also contains several stories and some art from our members," quoth Sam Hutton, Y-Chairbeing and Y-Runecaster of CUSFS. My email exchange with Hutton occurred "in the middle of a rather strange annual tradition, by which we stay up all night and play board games and discuss fantasy, in a tribute to the Sun which the Reeve (the leader of our fantasy section) 'kills,' and will revive at sunrise tomorrow (or today as it might be!)." <https://cusfs.soc.srnf.net>

We also heard from: Osce Erikson (Minnesota Science Fiction Society), Melody Friedenthal (Worcester Public Library Science Fiction Book Club), Cathy Palmer-Lister (Montreal Science Fiction and Fantasy Association), Ken Patterson (Bay Area Science Fiction Association), Juan Sanmiguel (Orlando Area Science Fiction Society), and Sharon Sbarsky (New England Science Fiction Association).

Fanzines and Prozines Received

These items aren't received in trade for De Prof, but are received, read, and recommended by Scribbles. I can't just send you these, but you can explore them yourself.

Ansible #427 (February 2023): David Langford's long-running assortment of sf- and fandom-related news, notes, and con listings. Visit <https://news.ansible.uk/a427.html> for this edition. Email ansible-news+subscribe@googlegroups.com to subscribe via email.

Interzone #294 (January 2023): The first edition under its new publisher MYY Press in Poland features eight stories and novelettes, interviews with Cassandra Khaw and Christopher Priest, book and movie reviews, artwork, and additional content—including a column by David Langford. <https://interzone.press>

Locus Vol. 90 #2 (February 2023): "The magazine of the science fiction and fantasy field" is our trade magazine, offering genre publishing news galore. This issue features an interview with Suyi Davies Okungbowa, 2022 in review, and obituaries for Richard Bober, Suzy McKee Charnas, and Henry Morrison. The short fiction and book reviews, and "Books Sold" and "Books Delivered" listings are sure to add to your To Be Read pile. <https://locusmag.com>

Nightmare Magazine #125 (February 2023): This periodical of horror and dark fantasy fiction, nonfiction, and poetry is edited by Wendy N. Wagner. This issue features writing by Rob E. Boley, Dominique Dickey, Erik Grove, and Ruth Joffre. <http://www.nightmare-magazine.com>

Pablo Lennis #423 (February 2023): Serialized fiction by Celine Rose Mariotti, John Thiel and Joanne Tolson; fiction by Burnett R. Toskey; a piece on quadrupedal cyborgs; fandom commentary and fanzine reviews (including remarks on the LASFS' own APA-L); poetry; and letters of comment. $2 or the Usual to John Thiel, 30 N. 19th St., Lafayette, IN 47904.

Radio Recall Vol. 40 #1 (February 2023): Published by the Metropolitan Washington Old Time Radio Club, this bimonthly newsletter includes a profile of Bill Owen, a survey of radio programs featuring the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, member news, a consideration of Philip Morris ads, an article about President Franklin D. Roosevelt's radio addresses, and noteworthy obituaries. Members meet monthly via Zoom. <http://www.mwotrc.com>

Simultaneous Times #34 (February 2023): The house organ of independent bookstore Space Cowboy Books in Joshua Tree is a monthly newsletter that, unfortunately, won't be published much longer. However, proprietor Jean-Paul L. Garnier recently interviewed poet Michael Butterworth for the February edition of the National Fantasy Fan Federation's Ionisphere above and has attended Loscon, so we're sure to see more of the man. This two-page issue includes an interview with Butterworth that doesn't cover the same ground as that in Ionisphere. Stop by the store or send the Usual to 61871 29 Palms Highway, Joshua Tree, CA 92252; <https://spacecowboybooks.com>.

Star*Line #46.1 (Winter 2023): The journal of the Science Fiction & Fantasy Poetry Association edited by Jean-Paul Garnier (see above) contains SFPA announcements, small-press reviews, an interview with Holly Lyn Walrath, and speculative poetry galore. $5 to SFPA Treasurer, P.O. Box 1563, Alameda, CA 94501 or included with membership; <https://www.sfpoetry.com>.

New fanzines available via <https://efanzines.com> include Bunyip & ayotochtli #22, CyberCozen (February 2023), The Drink Tank #444, The Megaloscope #5, The Obdurate Eye #24, Opuntia #543, This Here... #61, VT #27-28, Wild Ideas #32, You're Still on My Mind #1, and multiple apazines by yours truly.
