DE PROFUNDIS - the unofficial newsletter of LASFS

COLOPHON

De Profundis 580/581– Aug./Sept., 2021. Publisher and Editor: Marty Cantor.

De Profundis is the unofficial newsletter of the Los Angeles Science Fantasy Society (No current permanent address) and the LASFS does not currently have a telephone number. The club's web site is: www.lasfs.org. De Profundis is available only from Marty Cantor for his cost of producing the zines: 75¢ in person, $1.25 by domestic mail. Out of country rates quoted upon request but it is recommended that copies be downloaded - or at least read - from the DE PROF web site.

Westercon is a service mark of the Los Angeles Science Fantasy Society, Incorporated (LASFS, Inc.), Worldcon and NASFIC are service marks of the World Science Fiction Society (WSFS).

I want any news of interest to LASFS members (no poetry or fiction). Send items to the LASFS address c/o De Profundis or hand them to me at wherever LASFS meetings are being held. The editor, Marty Cantor, can be reached at his edress: martyhoohah \(at\) sbcglobal \(dot\) net or at club meetings on Thursday evenings. Deadlines are a bit fluid, but mid-month Thursdays are probably it.

If anybody who receives DE PROF via the mail happens to move without letting me know the new address; well, I have more important things to do than to be chasing down addresses so I will stop sending zines to you even if you have given me money to do so.

I will accept no advertising in De Profundis but I will always try to find room to announce upcoming events of interest to LASFS members.

Even though De Profundis is no longer the official newsletter of the LASFS, I intend to run the zine as if it still belonged to the club. Mostly. Due to space limitations, priority is always given to content mandated in the LASFS by-laws and by any applicable traditions. Also, after that stuff, by what the editor wants to do.

Written in Publisher 2000 on a custom-modified Intel quad-core, DELL Workstation (using the Windows 7 Professional 64 bit operating system) and printed on an HP 4700dn colour laser printer.

Statements herein are those of the speaker/writer and do not necessarily reflect the opinions of the club. Interjections in italics are solely the responsibility of the smartass, er, editor. Any resemblances 'twixt smartassery and responsibility are purely coincidental.

Addendum: At the LASFS' Board of Directors meeting of February 8, 2009, the Directors accepted the proposal by Marty Cantor to take over De Profundis as his own fanzine, or as one of them, and he will be assuming the entire cost of production. Marty Cantor has promised to use his 5+ years experience of running De Prof as a guide to pubbing the zine as the unofficial newsletter of the society. The proposal was put to the Board because the Board had previously indicated that costs were dictating the discontinuance of the zine. De Prof is available on paper solely at cost: currently 75¢. Mailed copies, domestically, will be $1.25. Subscriptions will be accepted; however, as prices are set at approximate cost of production, there will be no discounts for long-term subs.

Hoo Hah Publication Number 2407. Thanks go to Elayne Pelz, Charlie Jackson, Karl Lembke, several Zoom minute-takers, Nick Smith, and Lee and Barry Gold, plus any others who are helping me in providing news to LASFS members*

EDITORIAL

I am still looking for a replacement editor for DE PROFUNDIS.

And the above sentence is how, for some time now, I started my notification that I wanted somebody to take over the running of DE PROFUNDIS. I interviewed a couple of people; but, as it turned out, I kept the zine.

But now, for a few reasons, I am returning DE PROFUNDIS to the LASFS Board of Directors from whom I acquired it several years ago.

Around the turn of this century I took over as editor of De Prof and put out the issues each month for about five and a half years. During the whole of that time, all of the issues, usually between 250 to 350 copies of each, were all on paper. I typed all of the stencils at home and printed the copies on Friday afternoons on the LASFS Gestetner CopyPrinter. Fuzzy Pink Niven provided all of the mailing labels and Bob Null assisted me in folding, stapling, and applying the labels to the copies. I then applied stamps and took the issues to the Post Office.

Five and a half years, though, all with mimeo production, finally tired me out. After all, even though I was retired at the time, I was both running and contributing zines to the weekly APA-L and the monthly LAS-FAPA - along with a lot of board gaming ; and, much of the time, serving terms on the LASFS Board of Directors.

So, feeling tired, I turned De Prof over to Milt Stevens. Sometime during Milt's tenure at the zine, most of the issues started getting distributed on-line through pdf files.

Eventually, Milt got tired of running the newsletter and the Board, for reasons I disremember, decided to discontinue it. As it had been several years since I turned it over to Milt and my "vacation" from turning out the monthly issues had not only gone away but the work in putting out the issues had dropped considerably as the zine was now a pdf production.

I felt that the club needed a newsletter to let the members know what was going on so I asked the Board if it would give DE PROF to me as I had edited it before, was now on-line and I could easily keep up the pdf format. I did tell the Board that not only would I use the same format layout and the content would be essentially the same with all club notices and suchlike being put in whenever I was given same. In effect, DE PROF would be edited totally as it still was the official newsletter of LASFS.

I said that the only change I would make would be to produce paper copies which I would sell at my cost to those who preferred paper copies as I considered those who preferred paper to pdf (or did not even have an on-line connexion) would not be considered second-class members and would still get their copies traditionally, on paper, the only difference from the past being that I would be charging money for paper copies. However, I would always attempt to sell the paper copies as close to my cost of production as possible.

Well, the Board gave me DE PROF and I have been putting it out ever since that time.

However, as the readers know, the newsletter is now not being issued on a monthly basis. Indeed, this particular issue will barely be out by the end of its second month. (I will, though, list all of the programme items which I can get, and through December.

Sorry, people, but I am kinda tired, have some health issues, and my age - 86 - is finally catching up to me.

I am not dropping all of my LASFS and fan-nish commitments. After all, I have been a LASFS member since 1975, and that is more than half of my life. I have paid back LASFS by doing things for the club (in addition to the money I have given to the club), such as being Registrar and also being Procedural President twice. I have been on the LASFS' Board of Directors for several terms (and have been Board Secretary most of that time) and I created a photo-documentary of the move from the second to the third club-houses. (I used a real camera, not a phone, for this.)

I will also resign from my position on the Investment Committee.

But for now, I just cannot keep up with all of the things I have committed to do so I am dropping some of them. I will, though, not cut all of my ties to LASFS. Yes, I am giving De Prof back to the Board with my fondest hope that they can find somebody else to edit it. I am also not running for re-election to the Board of Directors - and I also hope that somebody either now on the Board or a new person elected to the Board can do a good job as Board Secretary.

For some time I have kept a master list of Patron Saints, listing each week's Patron Saint in APA-L and providing a copy of the list to the current Procedural President so that he or she can announce and remember them on Thursday meetings.

And, most important to me, I will remain the Official Collator of APA-L and the Little Tin God of LASFAPA - and will continue to contribute zines to these two APAs.

I have no intention of cutting all of my ties to LASFS as the club has been a home base for almost all of my social life for over 46 years and most of my friends are LASFS members.

I just need to relax a bit.

CONDENSED CREAM OF MENACE

(complete minutes are supposed to be filed in the LASFS' files and can be read there - also at www.lasfs.org)

Meeting #4327, July 16, 2020
Procedural officers running meeting not listed.

Called to order at 8:00 p.m. sharp.

Obituaries: TV's Grant Imahara and Galyn Görg

Patron Saint: Bill Curry, generous donor to the LASFS, sometime book vendor at conventions. Kind words from Matthew Tepper and Marty Cantor.

Birthday of early club member Evan Freehafer; anniversary of the Trinity Atomic Bomb Test. July 16th, 2020 was the 75th anniversary of the Trinity Test in Alamogordo New Mexico, the first nuclear detonation on Earth and the dawn of the atomic age.

Menace of Meeting #4326 read by stunt scribe Karl Lembke. Menace named "We miss you, Eylat" by Michelle "MamaBear" Dane.

Programming

On July 30, Barbara Hambly. In August, Michelle is working on other programming that she is not announcing yet, not putting someone in the room tonight on the spot!

Speaker: author/editor David Boop, of the "Straight Outta" trilogy of weird wild west anthologies. He invited the authors from those collections and three of them are here today: Brandi [nom de plume Ava Morgan], David Lee Summers, Cliff Winnig. David talked about the "origin story" of the anthology series, inspired by his work on a Tony Hillerman anthology, how he suggested Jim Butcher write an early adventure of one of the Dresden cast of characters for him – and then realized he was committed! David managed to parlay Butcher's participation, as well as names like Larry Correia, into a sale to Toni Weisskopf of Baen Books and the top 50 of the USA Today best seller list. He spoke about crossing genres, David Lee Summers read from "Fountains of Blood" [Straight Outta Tombstone] Brandi, nom de plume Ava Morgan, read from "Fang for Fang, Fire for Blood" [Straight Outta Tombstone] Cliff Winnig read "Not Fade Away" [Straight Outta Deadwood], reviving his Tennessee accent convincingly well. In a scoop for this meeting only: David's upcoming projects include a trio of space western anthologies. You heard it here first.

Back to the meeting:

Science: Susan reported on the Solar Orbiter from ESA/NASA. Stunning photography, despite severe inconvenience by the coronavirus, making them work from home. And yet, we have seen "campfires" <https://www.nasa.gov/feature/goddard/2020/solar-orbiter-returns-first-data-snaps-closest-pictures-of-the-sun>

Time Bound Announcements: Comic Con San Diego @Home, July 22-26. Michelle Pincus points out that Loscon has a virtual table there. <https://www.comic-con.org/ci>

Marty Cantor has news of club member Don Fitch, who has sold his house, moved into hospice, and is stunning everyone by not dying of cancer. He's still reading APA-L and De Profundis, contributing some moneys to cover postage. Marty shows us the interesting stamps on the envelope, Alaska Statehood, W.C. Fields, etc. Don sent a "humungous" check to cover his mailings, to leave the rest to the LASFS or Marty if APA-L stops pubbing, all so the IRS doesn't get it when he's gone. But he's still alive today. Amazing guy.

Reviews

Nick Smith talks about "Earwig and the Witch" which was Diana Wynne Jones' last book, coming to the screen by Studio Ghibli. Nick has seen the artwork and it's stunning.

Larry Niven watched the remake of "We Can Remember It For You Wholesale" aka Total Recall. Frankly, he prefers the Schwarzenegger version, he misses the humor.

Birthdays, Weddings, Obituaries, other life passages – Hatchings, Matchings and Dispatchings Birthday: Martian Child v.2.0, Aiden Freedman on Tuesday, July 21 2020. David Gerrold's first grandchild. Ed Hooper is being released from prison on August 2, 2020.
Tom Safer, a patron saint of the LASFS!
Nick reports others: anniversary of the birth of SF artist Virgil Findlay, SF author C.M Kornbluth, SF editor Gardner Dozois, a second generation SF person, Astrid Bear [nee Anderson]

Reading of previous minutes, which were named:

"Trinity Test Let Me Google That For You to Scott Beckstead" for $10

Patron Saints: Tom Safer, vocal musician, "toon head" master of American animation. Matthew wore a Warner Bros. cartoon shirt with Marvin the Martian and Daffy Duck in Tom's honor. Three Cheers.

Other Patron Saint: Ed Green, 2nd most frequent President of the LASFS, history with the club to the 1970's. Marty Cantor says Ed thought Marty was a communist. Martin Young, Lynn Maners, Tad had interesting conversations with him after 9/11; at least he could argue and still be friends. Michelle Dane enjoyed Ed's sense of humor as club president. Scott praised his video work for the Gift Exchange. Tom Safer worked with him LosCon programming and Tom's Saturday Morning film showings. Three Cheers.

Guest: Yeni Alvarez was a guest when the meeting was in Burbank, and is happy to be back.

Old Business: none.

New Business: none.

Committee Reports: Michelle Pincus announces that Barbara Hambly will be our guest speaker next week.

Miscellaneous: Michelle Dane will be traveling in the US; next week in Colorado, the week after that in L.A. and hopes to see her club friends for an after meeting. A discussion of areas of L.A. where they have closed streets for restaurant seating and small gatherings

Science: Nick reports the discovery of tools, shaped stone spearhead, carbon-dated about 30,000 years ago, in Mexico, long before we thought people lived there, which had been more like 10-12,000. Something is wrong with the carbon dating method, or else our archeology methods.

Lyn: There have been several anomalous discoveries. They need undisturbed sites in order to carbon date, which this one in Xapatec was not. Some discussion of Polynesian contacts along the west coast of North and South America. Michelle Pincus pointed out some linguistic links between the Polynesian and Chumash; Larry denies that any linguistic link can exist. Nick says that a culture that survives 2-3,000 years without collapse, with a strong oral tradition, it could happen. 30,000 would be a stretch though. Michelle P. says they have mapped the languages of Australia; Nick says that it is an isolated continent so that's why it is even possible. Tad thought that Polynesia was colonized around 2-3000 years ago, Lyn thought around the same or longer, circa 1000 BC, but not 30,000 years.

Tom: The award which Tom's father sculpted originally called The Web of Space, is now the Michael Collins Trophy.

This year to Charles Elachie for lifetime achievement, and the Hubble Telescope team for current achievement.

Rob Gizmo Powell reports that the space race between the new US and China space race to Mars is on! China launched today, US next week.

<https://spaceflightnow.com/2020/07/23/china-launches-robotic-mission-to-orbit-land-and-drive-on-mars/>

Tad: two weeks from tonight will be the 75th anniversary of the Hiroshima attack. If the club wants to do something, that is a Science anniversary. Tad suggests he knows an atomic scientist, Bill Higgins, whom we could invite to speak.

Time Bound Announcements: None.

Reviews: Greg Barrett reviews PEACE TALKS by Jim Butcher, the latest entry in the Dresden series. Lots of heavy action from the beginning, maybe some redundancy of phrasing in the last quarter or so, maybe it was on purpose. Fun book. Twist at the end to lead us to the next book comes straight out of nowhere! [No spoilers.] Mamabear reviews the Audible version of Mary Trump's book from a psychologist's point of view. It explains everything, it was probably very painful to write.

Miscellaneous: Lyn cross-teaches a class in the Geology department, and has encountered a YouTube program on Areology, the geology of Mars, "Atlas Pro."

Krystal promotes the Loscon items on Teespring!
<https://teespring.com/stores/loscon>

Meeting adjourned at 8:58 p.m.

August 8, 2021 Board Minutes
(Zoom meeting)

LASFS Board of Directors Meeting started at: 11:01 am.

Directors present via Zoom: Karl Lembke, Marty Cantor, Elayne Pelz, Christian McGuire, Nick Smith, Gavin Claypool, Michelle Pincus, Rob "Gizmo" Powell, and Debra Levin, and Mike Thorsen. Absent: Scott Beckstead.

Members and Guests: Matthew B. Tepper, Susan Fox, Eylat Poliiner, Barry Gold,

The Chairman opened the meeting by wishing us a Happy Gourmand Day.

Minutes: The Minutes of the June 13 meeting were accepted unanimously.

New Member: Orton Ortwein's membership was accepted unanimously.

Treasurer: $33,756.67.

30 Second Reports:

Chairman (Karl Lembke): (Fidelity balance: see treasurer for amount). No other things to report.

Vice Chairman (Nick Smith): No report.

Secretary, Publications (Marty Cantor): There will be two changes no later than the end of this year, possibly earlier. I am getting too busy with things; and, with age, I am slowing down a bit. I can no longer keep producing DE PROFUNDIS each month and I have pubbed several issues which were double-month issues - and I have been too busy renting a vacant apartment to do much of anything else. As I want to continue contributing to and running APA-L and the same with LASFAPA, I will be giving DE PROFUNDIS back to the Board. Also, I have gotten tired being Board Secretary and I intend to give up THAT job. My term of office on the Board is up at the end of this year. Even though I will be giving up being Secretary, I may or may not run for a new term on the Board. I have not yet made up my mind on this. At the least, the Board should be thinking about who should be the next Secretary (and who should take over DE PROF).

Comptroller (Gavin Claypool): No report.

Quartermaster/Supplies (Mike Thorsen): Same as last month.

Library/Archives (Gavin Claypool, Debra Levin): No report.

Physical Plant/AV Equipment (Elayne Pelz, Robert Powell): No status no updates.

Events (Christian McGuire, Scott Beckstead): Elayne has received all memberships from Westercon and integrated them into our database.

Marketing and Recruitment (Michelle Pincus): Putting adv. cards in various stores around our area. In September we will be going to colleges and universities.

(Significant Others):

Club President (Matthew B. Tepper): Still having meetings with, in recent months, an uptick of members at our Zoom meetings.

Webmaster (Barry Gold): DE PROF issues have been updated. // John Hertz gave the web site 2 years of Rotler Awards information.

Agenda Items:

1. Building search and other issues (Elayne Pelz). Still looking. There might be something to present next month.

2, LOSCON Business (Michelle Pincus): Discussion of charges. Possible changes after further discussion.

Open Forum:

Take-Aways: Fred Patten has pubbed 2 books posthumously (from Sherry Patten).

// There will be a discussion of LOSCON fees and a presentation of proposed changes presented in writing to the September Board meeting.

Next Meeting: The next meeting will be on September 12, 2021

Adjournment: We adjourned at 11:37.

Respectfully submitted.

BOARD GAMING MEETUP

The board gaming Meetup which had been meeting at LASFS on Friday Nights when LASFS owned its own clubhouse, has moved to a temporary venue, a game store in Sherman Oaks.

Paper Hero's Games is at 14109 Burbank Blvd., Sherman Oaks, 91401. The shop is in the interior juncture of an L-shaped strip mall on the Northwest corner of the intersection of Hazeltine and Burbank.

Our new hours are 2:00 pm to 8:00 pm.

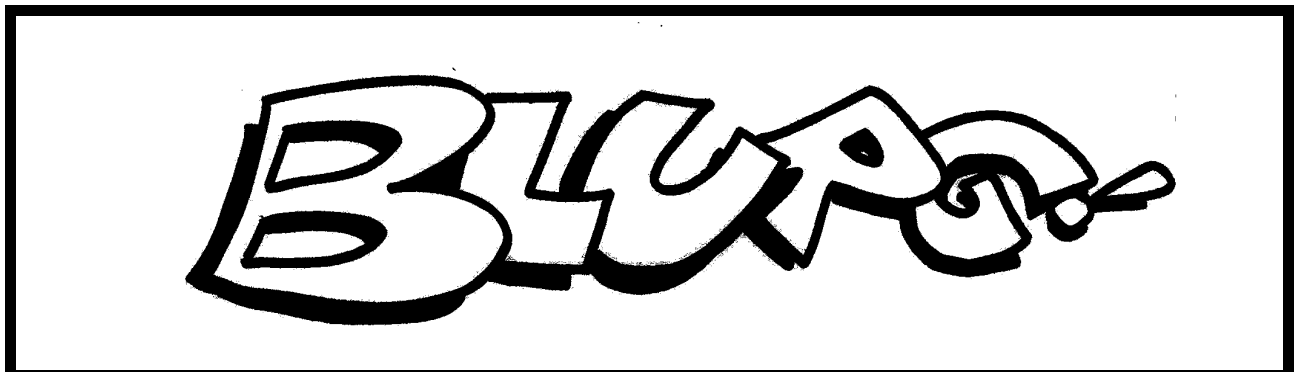

We hope to see our regular gamers at that venue.

We shall move our gaming back to LASFS when the club moves into permanent quarters.

My Friday Board Gaming Meetup is now holding Friday meetings (starting at 2:00 pm) at the above store.

The store is currently keeping its pandemic hours, 2:00 pm to 8:00 pm.
