Moment of Science:

Lee Hope for bananas, we are all eating from the same hybridized plant. People have been deconstructing the dna and found other sequences. It is a huge project. "Yes we have some bananas"

Announcements:

Kevin George RR Martin was interviewed and mentioned Larry Niven several times.

Heidi: Joyce Sperling is moving out of state, she said to say hello and she will see everyone at Loscon.

Van cannot attend Loscon, and is donating his membership to someone who can't afford it. (van42@hotmail.com)

Reviews:

Lee : Calibre for keeping track of your e-books. It does a good job of keeping them sorted.

Also has a conversion tool

Heidi: Tales of the Ravens Daughter, by Erin Rado. It is a series of short novels, very enjoyable. Erin will be joining us at Loscon

Matt "Calibre" in addition there is a companion app for your mobile device.

Ed: Calibre is free open source programming. Available on all platforms

Misc

Cathy, surgery went well...doing physical therapy. See you all at the after meeting

Ed: he is now in Cathedral City, in a place of my own. Would enjoy visitors

Chris: World Fantasy will be in New Orleans this weekend.

Eylat Motion to adjourn
